

Relationship Between Household Income and College Education in County–Race Groups in the South

In most counties Whites outperform Blacks in both household income and college degree attainment.

